(C) Online Video Presentation on the Conference Day

1. All presentation videos will be posted in Asian Scholars Network's YouTube Channel.
2. The presentation video and slides will be made available for view or download by the public.
3. Since the conference is not a live session, there is no specific itinerary / programme on the conference day.
4. However, just like normal conferences, we would like to make this conference to be interactive so that there will be 2-way knowledge sharing and exchanging of ideas between the presenters and viewers. Hence, we would appreciate if you could respond to any comments or questions (at the YouTube comment section) from the viewers pertaining to your presentation at your convenience time.
5. Please share the links with your friends and colleagues! Don't forget to subscribe to our YouTube channel for more exciting updates on the event.
